What is this type of insurance?

Annual Excess Reimbursement Insurance provides cover for the excess charged by the car rental company in the event the rental vehicle is damaged or stolen. It also provides cover for damage to parts of the rental vehicle that are sometimes not covered by the insurance provided by the car rental company – the windows, undercarriage, roof, tyres, wheels and headlights. The policy covers you for multiple rental agreements during the period of insurance. The maximum period of any single rental agreement must not exceed 60 continuous days. Additionally, this policy provides Collision Damage Waiver cover which provides cover for damage to your rental vehicle and Supplemental Liability Insurance which provides cover for damage to third party property and for third party bodily injury.

What is insured?

✓ Damage and Theft

Up to the value of the excess charged by the rental company for damage to or theft of, the rental vehicle
